Senator David P. Hinkins proposes the following substitute bill:

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION TO SECURE THE PERPETUAL HEALTH AND VITALITY OF UTAH'S PUBLIC LANDS AND ITS STATUS AS A PREMIER PUBLIC LANDS STATE

2017 GENERAL SESSION STATE OF UTAH

Chief Sponsor: Keven J. Stratton

Senate Sponsor: David P. Hinkins

LONG TITLE

General Description:

This concurrent resolution recognizes the state's commitment to remaining a public lands state and encourages the pursuit of federal executive and legislative action {, and if needed, to prepare for potential legal action to encourage legislative progress} that would lead to {state} both the retention and optimal management of public lands within the state of Utah.

Highlighted Provisions:

This resolution:

states that Utah is a premier public lands state and is committed to remaining a public lands state; and

- asserts that local management responsibility of Utah's public lands would result in greater opportunities for outdoor recreation, including hunting, fishing, and access, as well as economic opportunities for rural { Utah like responsible timber harvesting, mineral development, wind and solar energy development, and livestock grazing; and
- acknowledges the constitutional arguments that provide the basis to support executive, legislative, and judicial action to obtain management responsibility over public lands within} Utah.

Special Clauses:

None

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the state of Utah, the Governor concurring therein:

WHEREAS, the state of Utah is a premier public lands state and is committed to remaining a public lands state;

WHEREAS, Utah's public lands provide unique opportunities for outdoor recreation, including skiing, camping, hunting, fishing, biking, rock climbing, and spelunking in addition to economic opportunities like responsible timber harvesting, mineral development, wind and solar energy development, and livestock grazing;

WHEREAS, Utah's leaders are focused on the {protection} conservation and improvement of public lands, and the state's concern over federal management is not an issue of the public lands themselves or the good federal employees who work in this area, but the {unconstitutional alignment} historic and structural failure of the federal government to manage the public lands properly without meaningful state and local consultation and input;

WHEREAS, federal mismanagement {has provided} jeopardizes's Utah communities{ with increased air pollution}, {dying}our forests, { decimated} wildlife, {depressed} economies, { underfunded public education, and blocked} recreational opportunities_and air quality;

WHEREAS, the state of Utah seeks greater management { and} responsibility over the public lands not to sell them, but to protect them in the way that they always should have been protected;

WHEREAS, the Legislature has shown its commitment by passing a comprehensive package of laws to care for the public lands, including the Wilderness Act (Title 63L, Chapter 7) and the Utah Public Lands Management Act (Title 63L, Chapter 8)--the only two pieces of state legislation of their kind in the nation and which clearly explain how the state intends to manage and care for the public lands;

- WHEREAS, if given {the opportunity to manage} greater management responsibility over the public lands within the state, Utah is devoted to:
 - increasing public access for hunting, fishing, and outdoor recreation, as well as increasing public herds of wildlife like elk, deer, bison, bighorn, moose, and mountain goats;
 - mitigating conflicts, when they occur, between ranching interests and wildlife interests;
 - increasing opportunities for ranching interests, while also ensuring increased wildlife and sporting opportunities; and
 - increasing economic opportunities for rural Utah communities;

WHEREAS, {a comprehensive economic feasibility study has shown that the state is capable of managing the public lands effectively;

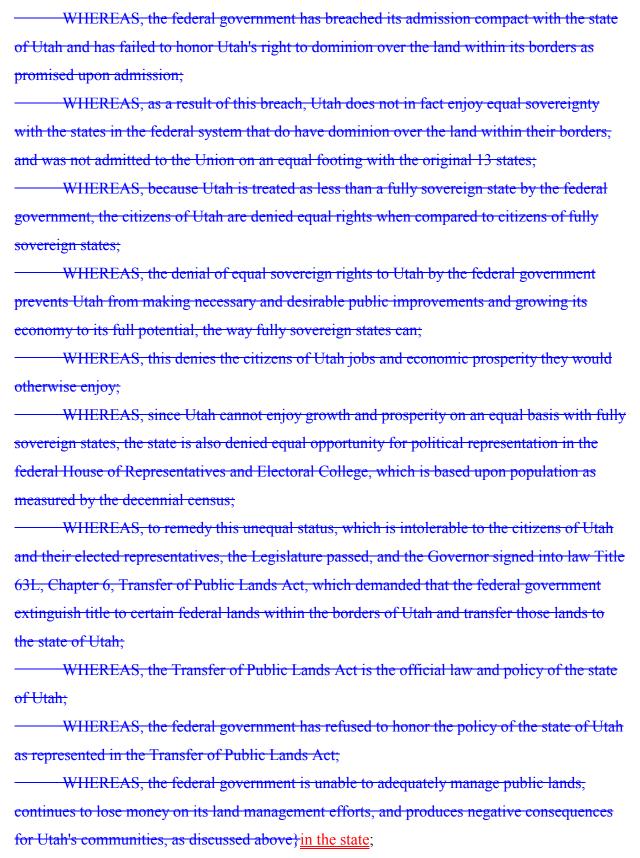

WHEREAS, not only is the state committed to the state is committed to retaining public lands in public ownership and in improving the way the public lands are managed (within the state, but also constitutional principles require that willing states be afforded the opportunity to do so;

WHEREAS, the equal sovereignty principle requires that all states in the federal system be equal in sovereignty with one another;

WHEREAS, the equal footing doctrine requires that states admitted after the original 13 receive the same sovereign rights enjoyed by the original states;

WHEREAS, the compact theory is based on the compact made between Congress and the newly admitted states that the new states would, over time, receive dominion over all the land within their borders, bringing them to sovereign equality with the original states;

WHEREAS, an independent legal analysis has determined that, based on the legal principles explained above, a valid constitutional basis exists upon which Utah could bring suit against the federal government to obtain dominion over federal public lands within the state;

WHEREAS, the state of Utah is regularly regarded as one of the best-managed states in the country and, because of this proven track record, seeks to obtain greater management responsibility over certain federally controlled public land within its borders; and

WHEREAS, by obtaining greater management responsibility {of}over certain public lands in Utah, the state could ensure appropriate conservation, secure public access, encourage multiple use, grow the economy, and sustain proper land management:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature of the state of Utah, the Governor concurring therein, strongly urges all members of the Utah congressional delegation to work in concert with Utah's legislative leadership and the Commission for the Stewardship of Public Lands to draft and pass federal legislation creating a framework to (transfer) ensure the retention of Utah's public lands in public ownership and to provide for greater state management responsibility over certain public lands (, as described in the Transfer of Public Lands Act, to the state of Utah).

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature and the Governor strongly urge all local, state, and federal elected officials from within the state of Utah to use all available and appropriate venues, platforms, associations, resources, and opportunities to educate colleagues, associates, peers, and the general public regarding the structural challenges and failures of federal management of certain public lands and the opportunities to improve education funding, economic vitality within the state of Utah, and the heath, vitality, use, and access of certain public lands within the state of Utah through the transfer of certain public lands, as described in the Transfer of Public Lands Act, to the State of Utah.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature and the Governor strongly urge, to encourage legislative progress, the Utah Attorney General to continue to prepare and stand ready to proceed with a methodical, provident, and constitutionally aligned strategy to assert a cause of action with the United States Supreme Court to secure the transfer of certain public lands, as described in the Transfer of Public Lands Act, to the state of Utah and further, in acknowledgment of the independent responsibilities outlined in the Utah Constitution, request that the Attorney General not file the complaint until further notice from the Utah Legislature in support of proceeding to file.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be sent to the President of the United States, Utah's federal delegation, the Utah Attorney General, the State Board of Education, local school boards within the state of Utah, county commissioners within the state of Utah, and mayors and council members of all communities within the state of Utah.
